Technical Writer

- Developed and maintained end-to-end developer documentation — including API Overviews, Integration Guides, Authentication Guides, FAQs, Error Codes, and Release Notes — for SaaS-based sports data platforms
- Translated complex technical concepts such as REST APIs, Webhooks, WebSockets, and Web Players into clear, accurate, and developer-friendly documentation
- Authored and maintained interactive API documentation covering endpoint references, JSON request/response structures, and workflow examples
- Built responsive HTML5 documentation and online help systems using Adobe RoboHelp and Visual Studio, publishing content via CMS and FTP platforms
- Validated API requests, responses, and end-to-end workflows to ensure documentation accurately reflected live system behavior
- Leveraged Google Analytics to monitor documentation performance, identify content gaps, and drive usability improvements
- Partnered cross-functionally with engineering, product, SMEs, and support teams to gather technical inputs and validate documentation accuracy
- Documented new features, configuration changes, system updates, and known limitations aligned with product release cycles
- Created troubleshooting guides and knowledge base articles in ServiceNow, reducing recurring support ticket volume
- Maintained Confluence-based documentation including user guides, internal knowledge bases, and process articles
- Managed the full documentation lifecycle — from content planning and technical reviews to version control, publishing, and ongoing maintenance

Support Engineer

- Provided technical support for REST API integrations, guiding customers through onboarding, configuration, and implementation to ensure seamless adoption
- Investigated and resolved issues across REST APIs, Web Players, and WebSockets by analyzing logs, API request/response samples, and test cases in collaboration with engineering teams
- Monitored production systems using Kibana to detect anomalies, diagnose performance issues, and proactively escalate defects through testing and deployment cycles
- Managed end-to-end customer incident workflows across ServiceNow, JIRA, Zendesk, and Salesforce, ensuring timely resolution and clear stakeholder communication
